Treasury Department Plans Billion Dollars Defiance of Congress

First Would Stop Further Foreign Loans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The treasury department loaned more than a billion dollars to European governments in direct defiance of the law, and with the knowledge, according to its own admissions, that the loans were without authority in law.

These facts became public through a letter and secret testimony given by Secretary McAdoo before the committee on the judiciary in executive session, was made public for the first time.

McAdoo asked that a special bill be passed granting specific authority to make loans after the conclusion of the committee's investigation.

Members of the same committee, however, also stated today, confirmed the belief by treasury officials that the authority was required because the loans could be refused. This authority was refused.

When upon the Treasury department first asked and made the loans anyway, McAdoo's first appeal for additional authority was made December 1, 1919, three weeks after the armistice was declared. The money was to be loaned "except to a government engaged at the time the loan was made, in war with one of our allies."

Quick action by Congress to prevent the secretary of the treasury from extending any further loans to foreign governments will be sought today. Senator Reed announced that he will ask the judiciary committee of the Senate to take action today, following the appearance of Secretary McAdoo before the foreign affairs committee today and after Secretary McAdoo stated it was "in every way possible" that further credits should be extended to foreign nations.

MAINE'S NEW GOVERNOR IS A BLONDE BACHELOR

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 12.—Richard Young, a blond and a "dresser," that's the new governor of Maine. Percival Proctor Baxter, forty-seven, occupant of the executive chair, his father James P. Baxter, is reputed the wealthiest man in the city, and possibly in the state.

Here's what the new governor never did:

- He never wore ragged clothes.
 - He never milked cows.
 - He never clerked at $5 a week.
 - He never starved rather than borrow.
 - He never fell in love with his wealthy employer's eldest daughter.
 - He never wrote a poem to a girl's eyes and parried the girl.
 - And many other things besides.
- Here's some of the things he has done:
- He has always dressed in perfect taste.
 - He received a liberal education.
 - He became a lawyer and managed his father's vast real estate holdings.
 - He avoided the social whirl.
 - He has remained single.
 - Over the teenagers you may learn that the new governor is not "handsome," but still is good looking. He is 6 feet tall, with blond hair and blue eyes. It is generally agreed that his manner is courteous and that of a "distinguished personality."

Miss Mary R. Stewart, an experienced coquette, direct from Miami, will be in charge of the coronet department of Anthony Brothers, starting Monday. Miss Stewart invites the ladies of the Triple Cities to call and get acquainted, whether they want to buy or not. She is well versed in corsets and makes a specialty of fittings.

Youth class mail (parent post) may be insured against loss, theft or damage to any amount.

ITALY STANDING BACK OF UNITED STATES IN CABLE CONTROVERSY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Although all efforts of the International Communications Conference to reach a decision on the disposition of cables seized from Germany during the war has failed, there is still hope of an agreement. Under Secretary of State Davis said tonight.

The United States will continue to insist upon internationalization of the Isle of Yap, despite the fact that Japan claims the right to control cable landings there. It is learned.

Italy's representative, it is learned, is standing staunchly by the United States in this contention, and these two powers are probably sufficiently able to block any agreement which would deny equal rights to all nations in the Yap cable landings.

CABINET POSITIONS IN ENGLAND UNDERGO CONSIDERABLE CHANGE

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Sir Worthington Evans, M. P., former minister for pensions, has been appointed secretary of state for war, succeeding Winston Churchill. It was officially announced this afternoon. Churchill accepted the post of colonial secretary, succeeding Lord Milner, resigned. Lord Lee, former civil lord of the admiralty, was appointed first lord of the admiralty, succeeding Walter Hume Long, M. P.

Florida Cannot Let Rollins College Fail for Lack of Funds, Says Noted Author

BY IRVING BACHELLER
(Author of "A Man of the Ages," etc.)

Florida is having a phenomenal growth. In the last decade, one of its cities outgrew all competitors. In the United States, its population has increased 440 per cent. It is today the most prosperous state in the Union. Its leading banks, protected with ample surpluses and well filled with deposits, are lending to the planters of Georgia. I believe that a great development, like that we have witnessed in Oklahoma, would seem to be under way in this and of the palm and pine, where one finds a fertile soil and the kindest climate in North America. It is a time for looking forward.

One thing looms big in the prospect, the need of educational facilities. Celery and potatoes and oranges are all right but what's the matter with mind culture? With all our planting and cultivating let us not forget the brain tree. Able intellects will bring more fame and profit to this state than citrus fruits. More over they will be needed to lay the foundations of the great future toward which this state is tending. Nothing can be more important in shaping the character of Florida. To a state, as to an individual, character is a matter of some importance, and this is intended as no reflection upon the present. Many of the best people of the north say:

"I would like to spend half the year in Florida, but we cannot bear to be so far from the children, who are in school or college."

They seem not to be convinced that thoroughly sound and well-endowed colleges and preparatory schools are to be found here. Let us convince them by giving generous support to the cause of education.

We have a worthy institution of learning in central Florida, accessible from all sections of the state. Rollins College is now doing sound work. For two years I have lived near it, and know whom I speak. It has buildings and resources of the value of $500,000. It needs only $150,000 to put it on a secure basis—a sum that seems trivial when compared with the advantages to be derived from it. If the citizens of Florida appreciate its value to the state and give it the support it deserves, this college will speedily take rank with Amherst and Hamilton and Union in the north and also stimulate the growth of similar

REPUTED INTERVIEW WITH FORMER KAISER IS CALLED A FAKE BY PROMINENT HUN

STORY WAS PEDDLED ABOUT
BY GERMAN TUTOR
BEFORE SALE.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The reputed interview with former Emperor Wilhelm of Germany, which appeared in American newspapers Friday and today under the name of Heinrich Petermeyer, who claims to have been formerly a tutor to the sons of Count Oldenburg Bostineck at Amerongen, Castle, where the Kaiser lived some time after his flight from Germany, was peddled by Petermeyer among correspondents here some time before he could make a sale. Petermeyer related that the conversation took place last August at Amerongen, where he was employed. Herr Von Berg, the former Kaiser's most intimate political and diplomatic adviser, declared the "interview" is a fake. "Anyone who thinks the Kaiser would talk for hours with an employee, assuming Petermeyer got it in that guise, don't know how suspicious and prudent the Kaiser is."

TALK OF ATROCITIES BY FRENCH NEGROES IS ALL PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Reported atrocities by French negro troops in occupied territory are results of "widespread propaganda directed against France" in the United States and abroad, according to Secretary of State Cully. Senator Spencer of Missouri tonight made public a letter from Cully on the question of protests against the United States permitting French negro troops to remain in occupied German territory. The state department says no black troop units are in occupied territory.

FORMER POLICEMAN GIVES AFFIDAVIT BACKING STORY OF TOM, RENA MOONEY

SAYS HE SAW COUPLE ON ROOF OF A BUILDING, CLEARING MOONEY.

SEATTLE, Feb. 12.—Richard Smith, former San Francisco policeman, declared in a statement here today that he saw Tom and Rena Mooney on the roof of the Eller building at San Francisco a few minutes after the Preparedness day explosion. The affidavit was obtained through the Seattle Central Labor Union, and they declare it establishes the innocence of Mooney, who is now serving a life sentence for the Preparedness day murders. Smith swears he could not be mistaken in the identity of the Mooneys. The Mooneys testified at the trial that they were on the roof of the Eller building when the explosion occurred. The Eller building is a mile away from the scene of the explosion.

NATIONAL HOUSE TO POSTPONE BUILDING, PRACTICES ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Members of the House Public Buildings and Grounds Committee have decided to postpone drafting the public buildings bill for postoffices, courthouses and other structures throughout the United States during the present session of Congress, "owing to present condition of finances of the government and the necessity for most rigid economy."

FORMER SOLDIERS IN RIOT IN EFFORTS TO GET AT O. VILLARD

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—A riot occurred this afternoon and several were severely cut by broken glass, when 50 former soldiers and others smashed the glass in doors in efforts to gain entrance to the Women's City club, where Oswald Villard, editor of the Nation of New York, was delivering an address against the League of Nations. Policemen finally restored order.

Huge Crowd Views Airplane Stunts and Motor Races on the Daytona Beach Saturday

Daytona Beach, from the ocean pier to far beyond the Hotel "Lafayette," was packed with a soothing mass of humanity Saturday afternoon, spectators of the regular weekly racing meet under the auspices of the Daytona Beach Motor Racing association, when automobiles, clad with streamers, houses and bicycles in line, an excellent program of seven events being run during the low tide period of the afternoon.

Williams receiving a set of tin clips. Johnson came back in the half mile bicycle race with a win, receiving an oil

Harding Cabinet Still Remains Undecided; Lowden and Dawes Have Not Been Eliminated

ASKS FOR WHISKEY, HAS FACE SHOT OFF, ARREST MADE IN JAX.

MIAMI, Feb. 12.—Maj. Paul Dillon of Fort Pierce, who had his face nearly shot off by Floyd Johnson, also of Fort Pierce, Thursday night, died today. Dillon, with three companions, stopped at Johnson's Place and asked for whiskey. Johnson, believing them prohibition agents, opened fire. Joe McKinney, Jim Shelton and Alfred were wounded, but will recover. Johnson was arrested at Jacksonville.

TEXAS WON'T INVITE MARY M'SWINEY TO ADDRESS ITS SALON

AUSTIN, Tex., Feb. 12.—The House of Representatives, by a vote of 54 to 61, defeated the Senate resolution to invite Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late mayor of Cork, to address the legislature. They took the position that it would be an expression of "approval to the cause of the Irish party seeking to secede from England."

KIDNAPPED, TARRED AND FEATHERED, IS WARNED TO "BEAT IT"

HOUSTON, Feb. 12.—L. I. Dobbs, the attorney who was kidnapped, tarred and feathered a week ago, was again "warned off" in Alvin, near here, today by seven men wearing hoods and masks. They stopped him as he was starting his car out of his garage and took him three miles from Alvin and told him to "beat it." Dobbs had been warned to leave the county or he would be shot. He had been visiting relatives in Alvin. The trouble started over his alleged activities in obtaining divorces for negroes and alleged too intimate association with the colored race.

Harding Has Long Confab With Dawes

(By George R. Holmes, International News Service Staff Correspondent.)

ST. AUGUSTINE, Feb. 12.—If Harding has held in Florida with Senator McAdoo and other "best minds" have developed one thing definitely. It is that with inauguration day less than three weeks away, the Harding cabinet is in no more settled yet. This was candidly admitted today by the president-elect himself. In a conversation with a number of callers, among whom were Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker, whose early strength as a treasury possibility lately has been on the wane. It can be accurately said that Harding has selected a number of men whom he would like to have in the cabinet.

Their names are familiar to the public. He tentatively assigned them to certain posts, only to find that his ideas as to where they would be most valuable do not always line up with their own ideas as to the cabinet. This has resulted in considerable jockeying and shuffling and delay of a number of decisions. Today developed the fact that neither Dawes nor Governor Lowden of Illinois have been definitely eliminated from consideration, as recently reported. Particularly is this true of Governor Lowden.

Dawes and the president-elect conferred for more than an hour today. At the conclusion of their talk, Gen. Dawes was asked if he were still under consideration for a cabinet post. "Ah, Mr. Harding," he said, "I'm not sure. It was the only way he would make it. The president-elect was noncommittal."

I have just spent a delightful hour with Gen. Dawes," said Harding. "I have not had a more illuminating hour since I was elected."

The principal topic discussed by the two, Harding said, was of more official cooperation between various branches of the government at Washington. General Dawes has a very definite and forceful idea on the subject. He aired some of them in a picturesque manner before the Johnson war investigating committee last week while defending the record of the U. S. F. It has been suggested that if General Dawes does not enter the cabinet, he may lead nonpartisan work which the Republicans have promised will be undertaken in congressional departments within a few days. Harding would talk further with Harding next week. Major Andrew H. McLean, Pittsburgh banker, also used influence, who has been mentioned in some quarters as a candidate for a treasury post, has an apparently close working relationship with Harding, and some say, Harding, it was learned today.

Any one thinking Harding said the president-elect had said that it was not an attempt to convince Governor Lowden. The president-elect announced a strong liking for Governor Lowden and said he would, and he has said so many times in the past. "It is all a matter of finding a man who will fit in."

General Lowden will talk a round conference on arrangements to meet in Washington some after his departure from his present post. The secretary of the department of the interior, as such, is not a cabinet position, but is a very important one. The department will be in charge of the interior. The department will be in charge of the interior. The department will be in charge of the interior.

When the attempt was made to get some of the members of the committee to attend the meeting, they had to be persuaded to do so. The committee was held at the New Gables hotel, when only members of the committee entitled to green badges are requested to attend. The committee expected to have an important announcement to make that evening of great interest to racing fans.

On Tuesday evening a special meeting of the race committee will be held at the New Gables hotel, when only members of the committee entitled to green badges are requested to attend. The committee expected to have an important announcement to make that evening of great interest to racing fans.

Dr. I. N. Yonan to Speak Here Three Times on Monday

Dr. I. N. Yonan, known as the "Hoover of Persia," will deliver three addresses in the city Monday, speaking in the morning at the Daytona High school chapel exercises, again at 2:30 at Casino Burgoyne, and in the evening will deliver his famous lecture, "In Exile with Armenia," at 8 o'clock at the Auditorium on the peninsula. In addition to the lecture, free, motion pictures will be shown of experiences in Armenia which Dr. Yonan went through during the late troubles in that country.

The lectures are free, and should prove of great interest, as Dr. Yonan has a world-wide reputation as a man who, first as a preacher, and later as a commander in the war, took a great part in the conflict in Persia.

Geo. C. Heintzman He's Out Again Winner Palm Beach Golf Match Here

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Heintzman, of Toronto, Can., who have been spending a few weeks in Palm Beach, arrived at the Hotel Clarendon Saturday afternoon where they will remain for a month. Mr. Heintzman is an enthusiastic golfer and expects to enjoy some good sport on the Clarendon links. He says he very much enjoyed the links in Palm Beach where after a successful week of play the South Florida championship was concluded on Friday. The feature contest of the day was the fight for championship honors between Mr. Heintzman, of the Lambton Golf club of Toronto, and Hugh L. Willoughby, Jr., of the Merion Cricket club, which resulted in a win for Mr. Heintzman, three up and two to play after a struggle which went 34 holes.

He's Out Again Officer, and He Hadn't any Clothes

About midnight Saturday the entire police department was awakened by the report that a man sans clothing was anything except what he was born with was straying at large in Daytona. This even caused the officers to sit up and take notice. They didn't want Daytona converted into a modern Garden of Eden and no fig leaves at hand so they turned out on masses and about 1 a. m. located the missing one at McDonald's boat yard waiting for the tide to come in. He was returned to his keepers and slept peacefully as soon as he was returned to his downy couch in a local hospital.

GEORGIA'S YOUNGEST MOTHER IS ONLY 12

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 12.—More children are born in Georgia to mothers in their 23d year than at any other time, the percentage being 6.12, according to certain relative statistics compiled by the State Board of Health. It is shown by these figures that 22.54 per cent of births are by mothers between 29 and 33 years old. The figures were compiled among 10,418 white families in which births occurred in the month of June, July and August, 1920.

These families averaged 3.5 children each, including all births during and prior to the months named. The youngest mother on record was 12 years old.

Large Attendance at Valentine Party of Palmetto Club

No less than 158 ladies of the Triple Cities participated in and greatly enjoyed the Valentine Card party at the Palmetto clubhouse Saturday afternoon, when 39 tables of bridge and 500 were played, and when the guests were royally treated by the club and hostesses of the afternoon.

The clubhouse was a bower of loveliness, with decorations of valentines, hearts, roses, ferns and bamboo, refreshments being served during the play, of ice cream in colors, heart-shaped cakes with varied colored icing, and coffee.

The prize winners at bridge during the afternoon were Mesdames Huron, Clarke, Leader, Allen and Niver, the second prizes being won by Mesdames Barnum, Wheeler, Marshall and Beers, while third prize at bridge went to Mesdames Sherman, Myers, Walto and Porter. Mrs. Ziegler and Mrs. Townsley won first prizes at 500.

The building fund of the club was augmented by about $75 during the afternoon, all funds of the party being devoted to this fund.

The Saturday affair was the largest attended card party of the season, the great success of the party being due to the efforts of the club members in making the Valentine party the most enjoyable of many similar affairs this season.

Royal Belgian Trio to Play Here Tuesday

On next Tuesday night, February 15, the Royal Belgian Trio will give one of their most pleasing recitals at the Auditorium as a number on the assembly course.

The Royal Belgian Trio appeared here two years ago and made such a profound impression upon the music lovers of the Triple Cities that when it was found possible to secure them this year, President Robert S. Holmes lost no time in making a contract knowing that it would be heralded with pleasure; that this attraction would appear on the assembly course.

The personnel of the trio consists of Miss Daisy Jean, cellist to the court of Belgium; Mr. Marinus de Jong, harpist and singer; Miss Gabrielle Radoux, pianist, virtuoso and composer and professor at the Royal Academy at Antwerp.

This remarkable trio of artists will no doubt give a recital that will be an uplift to all who hear it and which would cost a $1 or $1.50 in other cities and under different conditions. Their program appears below:

- | Program | Servants |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Concerto (Cello) | Mlle. Daisy Jean. |
| 2. (a) Schero in E flat Minor | F. Chopin |
| (b) Wals in A flat Major | F. Chopin |
| 3. (a) Si mes vers avaient des ailes | R. Hahn |
| (b) At Dawning | Wakefield Cadman |
| (Songs at the Harp) | Mlle. Daisy Jean. |
| 4. (a) Potpourri | C. Debussy |
| (b) Improromptu | A. Glazounow |
| (c) Scherzo | A. Borodine |
| 5. (a) Kol Nidrei | M. Bruch |
| (b) Rhapsodie | D. Popper |
| (Cello) | Mlle. Daisy Jean. |
| 6. Rhapsodie | F. Liszt |
| 7. (a) Jeanne Fillette | Weekertin |
| (b) Duen in the Forest | Landon Ronald |
| (c) Girometta | Sibella |
| (Songs at the Harp) | Mlle. Daisy Jean. |

The management of the Auditorium desires to make the following announcement that for the remainder of the season the reserved seat tickets will be sold at $4 and the unsold tickets at $3. There are still 12 numbers on the course, among them some of the very best attractions that will be shown through the entire season. It is hoped that many who have recently come to this community will avail themselves of the opportunity in securing these tickets at this low figure, thereby helping out a worthy institution, making it possible to bring larger attractions into our midst in the season of 1922. With such a splendid Auditorium it should be the desire of each and every loyal citizen of the Triple Cities to see this work go on.

Golfers Play Game on the Beach From Seabreeze-Ormond

On a golf course composed entirely of such bunkers and other hazards as Nature provided, old ocean on one side, sand hills on the other, a field of eleven hardy golfers, pioneers in a way, took part in a match on the Daytona-Ormond beach yesterday afternoon. Eleven started and 9 finished. Of the two who didn't finish, the wet and voracious Atlantic swallowed all four of the balls he began with, and the last remaining ball of the other was run over by an automobile and rendered unfit for further usage.

The distance was four and a half miles, from Seabreeze to the 18th green at Ormond. Robert Reilly, of Rochester, and Dr. A. M. Scott, of Evansville, Ind., tied for first prize. Each had 44 strokes, and the excitement was acute on the 18th green when they finished. A big crowd had gathered there and on the verandas of the clubhouse.

As the contest was held at low tide there was plenty of room, but just the same the driving was noticeably accurate. Drives were helped in the matter of distance by the smooth, hard beach, which gave a long run to the ball. Still, not a few balls were gobbled up by the ocean, which, as casual water, at times proved decidedly casual. If a roving pelican, after his first shock of astonishment at the strange doings, or a predatory tarpon didn't nab balls into the surf, the undertow did.

This was the first formal contest of its kind. In an impromptu way several seasons ago, George Merritt, the professional, did the same course in 46. A fleet of automobiles followed the players, the first gallery on wheels a golf match ever had. Dr. Charles Schoff, of Spring Haven, came up in 48 strokes; G. C. Nimmans, Chicago, in 52, and Francis Morrison, La Porte, Ind., in 53.

PENINSULA CLUB ENJOYS A SHAKESPEAREAN MEETING

The regular meeting of the Peninsula Club was held at the clubhouse on February 10th. The president, Mrs. Ransdell, presided; Mrs. Henry Mitchell was the leader. The subject was "Hamlet." Mrs. Henry Mitchell gave a paper on "The Life of Hamlet." Mrs. Margaret Mitchell sang selections from "The Tempest," "Under the Greenwood Tree," from "Henry VIII," and "As You Like It," in a very enjoyable manner. Mrs. Ransdell gave a paper upon "Interpretations by Famous Actors" and then familiar quotations were given by several members.

There was a large number of the members and several visitors present. The decorations were bamboo, hibiscus and poinsettias. A social hour followed, completing a very pleasant afternoon.

Halifax Country Should be Linked With Car Lines

Charles A. Squires of Port Jefferson, N. Y., who has the reputation of being a close observer and keen, wide-awake business man and who has large real estate holdings on the peninsula, was here yesterday in consultation with F. M. Williams of the Florida Realty company. He has high notions of the future of the Beach and regards real estate here as certain in value as gold nuggets. He has his own ideas of city development, however, and in conversing about the future of Daytona Beach, said:

"First of all, we should have a free bridge. I constantly hear people complaining when I am here of having to pay toll over a public highway, which in America should be absolutely free. There should also be a street car line here. I was much disappointed to find the one that was here some years ago had been taken up. These three places should be one great, prosperous city and should all be connected with a good electric street car line. This electric line should take in Ormond, Daytona, Seabreeze, Daytona Beach, Port Orange and the Inlet. There is no doubt but such an enterprise properly conducted would pay and it would mean the immediate development of all this territory into one splendid and substantial settlement. I have just returned from St. Petersburg, Miami, Palm Beach and other resorts, and to my mind Nature has done more for this peninsula than for any other winter resort I have ever seen. What is needed now is for the people to take advantage of the wonderful opportunities that have come to them without cost. This beach cannot be matched anywhere, and the climate is ideal. These cities should also have, if they have not already got them, liberal and progressive officials who are far sighted and not afraid to spend a few dollars for civic beauty and pride in order to attract people here. If the proper policy is pursued by the people really interested here this will very soon be recognized as the Atlantic City of the South, where everyone who goes at all will feel that they must come here if they don't get anywhere else. It is in the people's own hands to make these peninsula resorts just what they wish."

On Monday afternoon, February 14, the regular meeting of the Triple City Tourists' club will be held at the Auditorium.

Vice-President of Sheffield Dairy Farms at Clarendon

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. VanBomel of New York City are among the many Clarendon guests this winter and are very much enjoying their stay in Seabreeze, where they find many things to interest them and to make the hours pass pleasantly.

Mr. VanBomel is the vice president of the Sheffield Dairy Farms which with the Borden Company are the greatest distributors of milk in the country. Every day in New York City, 11,500 ten-gallon cans of the Sheffield milk is sold and 1,240 wagons are kept in constant use in that city by this big concern. Milk is now selling in New York for 16c a quart, a reduction of one cent per quart for the month, but Mr. VanBomel says the prospects are that there will be a constant decrease until July 1 at least. He says that as the price of labor and feeds and other materials are reduced in price, the cost of milk will also come down.

There is always more or less strife between these big milk distributors and the farmers, the latter constantly demanding better prices for their milk and planning to put in their independent plants. Mr. VanBomel says that these independent plants of the farmers cannot be successful because this business like every other one requires the management of experience and must have men at its head who understand this line of work. There is no business that requires more careful management than the big distribution of milk. The Sheffield Farms sell more milk in New York City than any other concern. While the Borden do an enormous business, it is mostly outside the Metropolis.

Mr. VanBomel is very much pleased with the Triple Cities and sees for them a great future. Like all other travelers of experience he appreciates the wonders of the beach. He says he would like to see the local people do the many things that are necessary to beauty it and bring out all its possibilities. Both he and Mrs. VanBomel consider the climate here ideal and they think there is every reason why this should be the greatest resort in the state of Florida, or any other state.

Mr. VanBomel feels that the country is in a safe financial and industrial condition and he expects the situation to brighten as the work of reconstruction is completed. He admires President-elect Harding and has every confidence in the incoming administration, and the good judgment of the newly elected president to surround himself with competent and patriotic advisers and that he will select a strong cabinet and lead the country to prosperous and happy days.

Oscar Seagle and Hector Damsereau in Concert Here

Music lovers of the Triple Cities will receive the treat of the season on Wednesday evening, February 16, when Oscar Seagle, the great baritone, will be heard in concert, to be assisted at the piano and in solo work by the French pianist, Hector Damsereau, who has but recently returned from a tour in France, where he accompanied the noted tenor soloist, Jean de Reszke.

Both Seagle and Damsereau are artists of highest note in the musical world and patrons of the concert, to be held under the auspices of the Palmetto club at the Orange avenue clubhouse, will be given an opportunity to hear two men at the head of their profession.

Because of a promise made his religious family, Oscar Seagle, the baritone, has never entered the operatic field. Like many another family of the old fashioned South, Mr. Seagle's looked upon the stage as the one impossible avocation, and when one member of the family disclosed promise of becoming a singer their single effort was to obstruct his ever falling under the sway of the footlights.

Later, however, when Mr. Seagle was studying with Jean de Reszke in Paris, his teacher made every effort to encourage the young man to forswear his original promise and in the hope of succeeding in that effort taught him the entire title role in Ambrose Thomas' "Hamlet," even unto the last detail of stage business. For months Mr. Seagle worked on the role, going through every piece of business on the little stage which de Reszke had had erected in his Paris studio.

Finally the offer came for the young American baritone to make his debut in one of the provincial opera houses. But he had to refuse it, despite the urging of his teacher and of his friends. The utmost he has ever consented to do with the role has been to sing the celebrated Drinking Song on his concert programs and for the phonograph. It is really a pity in one way that the singer's resolution has been so strong, for as everyone knows the role lies very high, for the average baritone and is only possible for a few who like Mr. Seagle have an extensive command of top tones.

LOSES SUIT AGAINST LATE SIBERIAN QUEEN

PARIS, Feb. 12.—An unsuccessful attempt has just been made by heirs of a French doctor to recover $6,000 for attendance on the late Queen Draga of Serbia, when she was about to give birth to a child. The doctor was summoned to Belgrade a year before Draga was assassinated. His heirs were defeated in a suit they brought against the dead queen's mother-in-law, Queen Nathalie.

"CONGREGATION WILL WHISTLE HYMNS," ETC.

(International News Service.) PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 10.—Congregational whistling has been introduced into the service of the First Baptist church by the Rev. John H. Thompson, who has become known here as the "Whistling Parson."

The pastor, so far has proved himself the champion whistler of his congregation. At a recent service he invited all who could not sing to join in whistling the tunes of the hymns.

At first there was a feeble response, but a second trial showed that a majority of the audience were expert whistlers and a great volume of melody and harmony was heard above the orchestral and vocal music.

Miss Kathleen Hudspeth will demonstrate chenille work at Anthony Brothers this week. A special effort is being made to assist the ladies in the use of Bear Grand yarns, Bacilla pearls and Glossilla twist. Knitted wear is the vogue this season and it is surprising the number of useful articles that can be made out of yarn. To emphasize the importance of yarns Anthony Brothers are devoting an entire window to display the finished product this week. Their yarn department is on the third floor and is in charge of an expert.

Specialists of the department of agriculture examined more than 22,000,000 cattle during 1920.

AN EXCELLENT CAST IN "SO LONG LETTY"

Quartet of Artists Headed by T. Roy Barnes Makes Picture One of Season's Best

One of the best Robertson-Cole super-special releases of the year is "So Long Letty," the comedy-drama produced by Al Christie which will begin a run at the New Daytona theatre Monday for three days.

The picture is the screen adaptation of the Oliver Morosa play of the same name which established an enviable record on the legitimate stage during the last five seasons.

The picture was made in the Hollywood studios outside of Los Angeles by Mr. Christie so that everything in both productions are alike in detail and none of the fine points of the play as originally put on, are lost in the picture.

As a photo-play, "So Long Letty," has one of the most capable casts seen in any picture this season. The four principal characters call for artists of ability and in T. Roy Barnes, Grace Darmond, Colleen Moore, and Walter Heirs, "So Long Letty," has practically an all star aggregation. There are many beautiful bathing girls in the picture, Mr. Christie believing that water, either as a part of picture setting or otherwise, is useless unless you put something worth while in it.

Throughout the story of "Letty" matters become mixed, muddled and fixed in the most surprising manner. Two couples—newlyweds—are neighbors. The four present a quartet of dispositions as different as day is from night. The two husbands depict the home loving and the gay dog types. The two wives differ in about the same manner. It so happens the gay dog is married to the home body wife while the hubby of the fireside and carpet slippers has the consort who loves the jazz bands and the creations of a Fifth Avenue modiste.

The difference in temperament leads to all sorts of comedy and discussion with the result the men decide to swap wives. The women folk are called into conference and they agree with the men in order to teach them a lesson. A trial of one week is demanded by the women before taking up the business of divorce. The trial week follows and so does some of the most interesting situations even seen in pictures.

ONE CENT VERDICT FOR SLAP IN FACE

(International News Service.)

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 10.—A $5,000 damage suit arising from a slap in the face has finally been settled here by a jury verdict of 1 cent after the case had dragged through the courts for nearly two years.

John Tension was the plaintiff and Riley Riggs the defendant. They met on the Wheeling Creek bridge in July, 1919, became involved in an argument, and Riggs is said to have slapped Tension's face. He had the latter arrested and appeared against him in Magistrate J. J. Gomer's court, where Tension was fined 55 cents and costs. Tension then brought suit for $5,000 damages in Circuit court, where a jury has just terminated the long drawn out proceedings by awarding the plaintiff 1 cent damages.

a case of sleeping sickness that had baffled physicians from many states was corrected after six weeks' treat-from the start that he had diagnosed the case correctly.

Twelve weeks ago Mrs. T. M. Kin-were called from the foremost cities of the United States. Hope was practically abandoned and then Dr. E. J.

Meinhardt of Daytona was called in.
He made three trips to Gainesville patient should be removed to Day-from the start, and as a result Mrs.

grateful that Daytona is responsible

Faith Residence is Purchased by J.J. Ascher of N.Y.

Villa Monaco, the beautiful Italian residence which Geo. M. Faith erected during the past year in Bostwick Park at the corner of Peninsula Drive and Bostwick Avenue, has been purchased by James J. Ascher, of New York City and Sayville, Long Island, a prominent contractor and real estate dealer of New York.

Villa Monaco is one of the most beautiful homes in the Triple Cities, having every convenience and being most ideally situated. The residence was constructed by Fuqua & Gheen, under the personal supervision of Mr.
Faith, who has also built a number of other homes in Bostwick Park and in Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. Ascher arrived in Daytona only several days ago, aboard their steam yacht Adeline, which has been lying in port at the city dock.
This is the first trip Mr. and Mrs.
Ascher have made to Florida, and it took them but several days to decide that the Triple Cities was the one spot in America where they desired to spend their winter in the future.

The Adeline is the largest yacht which has put into the local harbor in nine years, according to old rivermen, being 115 feet over all, and most elaborately equipped. The Aschers will continue their cruise to Palm Beach, Miami and to Havana, Cuba, this winter, occupying their new home in Daytona Beach next December. Mr. and Mrs. Faith to remain in the home until that time.

The choice of the Triple Cities as their future home, made by the Aschers is a great compliment to these cities. Mr. Ascher stating that in no community in Florida had he seen the progressive spirit exemplified as he had in the Triple Cities, and believes that possibilities of advancement here are greater than in any other place where he has been.

FRIENDS HELP CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS DELIGHTFULLY

Friday evening proved a very delightful occasion for Mrs. Elmo Riley of the Florida Realty company. It was her birthday and to celebrate this event a very charming dinner party was arranged by Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Canine, now among the most extensive property owners on the peninsula. The elegant service was at the Ridgewood hotel, where they have been stopping since their arrival from Pennsylvania. During the evening it also became known that it was also Mrs. Canine's birthday, so the delightful observance served a double purpose. Among the guests at the birthday table were: Mr. and Mrs. Canine, Mr. and Mrs. William Adler, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin and Miss Jennie Kelly of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Williams and daughter, Miss Fannie and Mr.
and Mrs. Elmo Riley, Miss Canine, Mrs. Erwin and Miss Kelly and others. It was a very happy time and will be long remembered by all present.

Friday Evening Seaside Dances Greatly Enjoyed

As usual the latest home-like Friday evening dancing party at the Seaside Inn proved a source of much pleasure to the guests of that popular hostelry who unite in appreciating Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Glenn and their entertainers. They made the party stopping with them feel perfectly at home and without display or ostentation see that they have every comfort. The lobby is a most most of the furniture and the have a fine floor for the use of lighted music is furnished for the day evening by the 12-12-12
hotel orchestra.

For these pleasant occasions the guests are made to feel it is a ease and free to enter into the of the entertainment. In these people from all parts of the coast are given an opportunity to become acquainted, and often new acquaintances are made and friendships formed that remain a memory.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn have many old friends with them again, this year, who have spent other winters at them and who feel when they return for another season that they are the back home. Among those who enjoyed Friday evening's dance were:

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. O'Connell, Mr.
and Mrs. George Lopez, Mrs. T. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Mural, Mr.

BUCILLA GLOSSILLA PEARLE A GLOSSILLA
T W I S T A

BEAR BRAND YARNS are truly "The Yarns You Love to Use." Today, more than ever, they are the Yarns of Fashion. Their universal use in the making of fine knitted and crocheted articles further emphasizes their half-century's supremacy in quality, softness, durability and wonderful colorings. Extreme care is taken in every step of their production. Each process is under the direct supervision of experts who have made a life study of the best and most modern methods of manufacture to insure guaranteed satisfaction to every customer.

BUCILLA MERCERIZED PERLE COTTON lends itself admirably to the making of the new Filet Crochet Sweaters and other articles. It is so inexpensive and garments made from it are so soft, silky, lightweight and serviceable, you will want several this season. Furnished in a wide variety of sport shades and colors, and put up in large balls for your convenience in working.

GLOSSILLA TWIST delights the senses of touch and sight by its lustrous brilliancy and dazzling sheen. It answers the demand for a rich-looking, "Brighter-than-Silk" garment that is a little "Different" from anything you have had before. It "works up" delightfully and you will be enraptured by the wonderful assortment of sport shades offered.

NO WONDER THE NEW FILET CROCHET
SWEATERS ARE SO POPULAR—WHO CAN RESIST THEIR ATTRACTIVENESS?

The fascinating new Sweaters, Vestees and other articles so easily made are just as serviceable as they are pretty and stylish.
Think how they will add to the attractiveness of your costumes this season! Added to the joy of making them with your own busy fingers is the assurance that they are the very latest vogue.

ELIZABETH POLLITZ WINS DOLL; POPULAR GIRLS' CONTEST TO BE DECIDED SATURDAY

Saturday night proved the banner evening of the week at the Elks' Charity Fair. All booths did a rushing business and merry-making continued until midnight. The dance floor was crowded with light-hearted devotees of Terpsichore who tripped the light fantastic to their heart's content. Beauty and chivalry were there in all their splendor and mirth and merriment held sway because all entered into the spirit of the occasion and wanted to attest their appreciation of the Best People On Earth. The Armory was filled to overflowing and prepared those in charge for the busy day to come this week. The Elks' Charity Fair is the success it richly deserves and everyone is boasting of greater success during the closing week.

Last night was Florida Elks' night and they did themselves proud, as Elks always do. There was not a dull moment during the entire evening and time passed so quickly that it was midnight before many realized that the Sabbath had been born. To tell of all the events and thrills would be to recite the personal pleasure of the hundreds who attended and did right liberally help swell the Elks' charity fund.

Popular Girl Contest.

Zest was added to the popular girls' contest by the announcement that Mrs. C. G. Burgoine in her wisdom had concluded that it was only fair to offer second and third prizes and had consequently donated two additional prizes. Prizes now offered through the generosity of Mrs. Burgoine are: First, gold mesh bag of the value of $50; second, diamond bracelet of the value of $45, and third, a pearl necklace valued at $35. In view of this additional incentive it was determined to continue the popular girl contest until next Saturday night, when awards will be made. Any young lady between the ages of 12 and 18 years is eligible.

Elizabeth Pollitz Wins Doll.

In the doll contest there was keen competition. When returns were all in it was discovered that little Miss Elizabeth Pollitz was first. She was awarded the handsome doll donated by Ella L. O'Neill. Little Lorena Hancey was second and was given a doll while a teddy bear was awarded little Miss Irma Gwinn.

"BILLY" SUNDAY'S COMING AN EVENT OF MUCH INTEREST

BY DR. ROBT. S. MACARTHUR

The coming of "Billy" Sunday to these Triple Cities is an event of great importance socially, educationally and religiously. I have known Mr. Sunday for many years, having first met him at a great chautauqua assembly at Columbus Junction, Iowa, at which we were both speakers. I have studied carefully his evangelistic work in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, New York and in other cities. Widely do I differ from him in the taste which he shows on many points in his discourses, but I give him full credit for the sincerity which he manifests in his fervid sermons.

Many persons think, however, that he often by his frequent references to the devil and hell puts into the minds of boys ideas which work out in their thought and speech into coarse profanity. Perhaps now that the Kaiser has been disposed of, for the present at least, "Billy" will not feel obliged so frequently to consign him and others to regions supposed to be much hotter than Florida in summer. At some points in his discourses his language becomes "language." But on the other hand he frequently rises to rare heights of genuine eloquence, judged by the best standards of literature and oratory.

It is to be borne in mind also that what is slang today may become commendable speech tomorrow. Often also a deeply spiritual thought may best be expressed in homely speech. There is no doubt but that to Greek classifiers many parts of the New Testament are virtually slang. The writers used the language of the street of the markets, and of the homes. They were more anxious clearly to express their thoughts and to drive home spiritual truths, than to conform to any traditional standards of language. They did not hesitate to coin entirely new words. In reading the miracle in Mark 7:31-37, of the one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, we have in the 35th verse, an entirely new word to account for the great wonder of the people. The word in Greek is found only here, it is of the nature of a double superlative. We translate it "very superabundantly" or "super-excessively." To a classic Greek scholar this would be an example of slang. In the Epistle to the Hebrews the writer, whoever he was, in speaking of the sin which doth so easily beset us, gives us a word which not only is not found elsewhere in the New Testament, but is not found in the whole range of Greek literature. It is a good word which is made of three Greek words combined into one most suggestive term. The writer of the Epistle made the word for the occasion. This again to the Greek classic scholar would be an example of slang. Let it not be too hard on "Billy" Sunday if he uses some slang words. Some of them will not be slang in the near future. He has good authority for his guidance. He also gets needed results in his preaching. Fair, after all, is the chief object of all preaching.

No man now living, no man who has ever lived, has addressed audiences as large as those which have listened to Mr. Sunday for weeks at a time. This is a very strong statement, but it is as true as it is strong. It is impossible to name any speaker, whether of the old Hebrew prophets or of the great orators of Greece and Rome or of the Middle Ages, or of the speakers of Great Britain or of the United States in comparatively modern times who addressed for continued periods audiences so great as those which have listened to Mr. Sunday. In saying this I am not unduly of Demosthenes, of Chrysostom, of Peter the Hermit, of Wesley and Whitfield, of Bunyan and Spurgeon, for of Moody and Sankey, Spurgeon would doubtless have addressed audiences as large as those which have listened to Sunday but Spurgeon did not have meeting places large enough to accommodate all who wished to hear him. It is the unique fact in the life of our time that we have a man capable of drawing and holding audiences on our most crowded highways, speaking on disinterestedly religious topics.

We give "Billy" Sunday a cordial welcome. A Presbyterian college in Western Pennsylvania gave him the title of Doctor of Divinity, but he wisely merits the title. We should gladly call him "Billy" Sunday. Doubtless his meetings will somewhat disrupt our regular church services. They will rob the churches of members, and of singers, and of financial offerings. But we shall gladly make the sacrifice for the sake of the good which we hope will come to the civilization and Christianity of the community. We believe absolutely in the sincerity of Mr. Sunday, and as a brother beloved of God and of men.

SUGAR WAR GOES ON

PUBLIC BENEFITS BY PRICE-SLASHING.

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
 NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—There's a jolly price-cutting war on between the cane sugar refiners.

Sugar is tumbling toward pre-war levels. From a record-high price of 23 cents for refined sugar last spring today's price is below 7 cents.

It is no exaggeration to state that the profit has been nearly wiped out on sugar all along the line from Cuban planter to retailer. Refiners are staying in the market at or near a loss merely to keep their customers. And for this same latter reason the price-cutting is on.

The public—especially the large manufacturing plants using sugar—are buying on a "hand-to-mouth" basis. Certain signs, however, indicate a bottom around 6 cents and then possibly a rise.

Cuban raw sugars now are selling around 3 7/8 cents a pound, aboard vessels at New York. This doesn't include one cent a pound tariff duty. At a price of 4 7/8 cents, sugar may leave the refiners' hands at slightly more.

We welcome him to our cities, to our homes, and to our hearts.

BIKE RIDERS, GO SLOW!

HAYRE, Mont., Feb. 8.—This is a cow town. Used to be prejudiced against bicycles. New traffic ordinance put speed limit of autos at 15 miles an hour. Bicycles, 12 miles.

But they are today selling their sugar made from higher-priced Cuban raws, and therein lies the danger of terrific losses.

If a tariff of two cents is added next summer the wholesale price of sugar will be increased by that much.

UNCLE GEORGE'S SUNDAY MORNING SERMON

ON BOYS AND GIRLS

They say I am prudish—probably I am. Two articles appeared in the News recently, one by a "Tourist," another by a "Northern Teacher."

Both were good, but an occasional letter calling parents' attention to what their children are doing and for not knowing what is all right as far as it goes, but the time is at hand when more rigorous means should be used if we wish to preserve modesty and virtue.

Teachers and the police department of Grand Rapids had the time of a lifetime at the parents' mass meeting in the Central High school building last Monday night, represented by the principals of three high schools and the superintendent. All told the 1200 parents of the social and scholarship conditions among their children, and placed the responsibility on the parents, where they think it belongs. The parents seemed to agree that it largely belongs to them and they accepted it meekly without a protesting voice.

To be sure it was not very pleasant for the parents to be compelled to listen and be told a thing or two, but that which was said in public there ought to be told to every parent, for it is hard to make parents believe things as they are.

The chief of police told of the joy rides and of homecoming and sneaking in at 1 or 2 o'clock in the morning. Children are not taught to respect their parents and are allowed to play with all new fads, and they play it to the limit. The parents, teachers and the police, should all work together for the good of the young. One of the principals spoke of the national life involved. The marked disintegration of child life is the most serious problem that confronts us today. It involves not only the happiness of the child but the entire moral fabric of the national life.

Children must be taught law and order, to be obedient to parents as well as to teachers and to be respectful to others. The desire of parents to save their children the discomforts they themselves suffered will wreck many an American home.

Another principal said parenthood is on the verge of bankruptcy. Children nowadays grow so fast they do not have a chance for the natural expression of natural childhood. Let the girls no longer play with their dolls but dance with their best-little beaux. By the time they are 13 they are dancing cheek to cheek with their

"steadies." This is only the harvest you may expect to reap from your sowing.

If we go on as we are the next generation will not recognize "Home, Sweet Home," unless it is jazzed. Home is a sacred place and parents should talk things and results over with their children. Be sure you know where your children are. One sees too many automobiles on country roads on summer nights—yes, winter nights, too, with young boys and girls in them.

Parents should be careful of their children's dress. One young man said to his mother: "I don't know how to hold a girl to dance any more. There isn't a place for one's hand except on her skin, and I don't like that, and many boys will not dance with girls who have corsets on. If each generation is to be an improvement over the preceding one you must feel the responsibilities and privileges of parenthood.

Social clubs are spoken of by still another principal, very much in the same manner as those preceding had. Late automobile riding, poor preparation and soldiering by pupils—some "skin" through, but they could not 10 days after the "exam." Parents should know where their children are at night. I have no sympathy with the idea that the school is the social center of the city.

The school will be more of an American institution if its clubs are built around subjects of the curriculum rather than around society. Young folks nowadays don't know what it is to do a little work. They don't know how to study. Studying isn't any harder work than dancing. You can't educate the head and the heels at the same time. Motion picture shows should be censored and girls should dress modestly.

Then somebody added: This is a day for frank confessions and we can now expect that the boys and girls will hold a mass meeting and take the blame for the things their parents are doing. Yours truly, UNCLE GEORGE.

TEND THE BIG SUB-TROPICAL MID-WINTER FAIR AT ORLANDO FEBRUARY 15 TO 19, 1921

All in Readiness for Opening of the Great Sub-Tropical Fair at Orlando Beginning Tuesday

Everything is in apple-pie order for the festive week, the Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair, the biggest thing yet for this section. Only the prophet is now to be reckoned for a full week of entertainment and education.

Every body and each section will be in the spirit of optimism, all ready to help the fair win out. So your dates, or better still, at every day. Season tickets cost $1.50 for the entire five days.

The schedule of dates are as follows: Tuesday, February 15, Orange county day, opening day.

Wednesday, February 16, Seminole county day.

Thursday, Feb. 17, Volusia county day.

Friday, Feb. 18, Educational and Children's Day.

Saturday, Feb. 19, Osceola and Lake county day.

The greatest array of exhibits ever at the Sub-Tropical fair will be turned to the public when the gates are thrown open on the 15th. The line of exhibits are as follows.

Horticulture Dept.—This fair always has the finest exhibit of oranges, tangerines, lemons, grapefruit, apples and other seasonal fruit. The citrus exchange, Sub-citrus exchange, Orange county, Volusia, Seminole, and all the town and community exhibits will prove to the beholder that we still possess the Orange Belt.

We claim to have the best Poultry Show in the State.

Everybody says so.

And You Must See the Amusements—No Fair Complete Without Them.

every known vegetable will have a big place in this important department.

Farm Crop Test.—Particular attention is being given to the collection of strictly farm crops—a line that some of our visiting friends think our section is deficient in. This display of corn, potatoes, sugarcane, pumpkins, grains of various sorts, etc., will astonish you.

Stock Dept.—This is the most difficult of all to handle, owing to the changing conditions from year to year, but there is promised a good show of cattle, hogs, etc.

Poultry Dept.—Our fair always excels in poultry. This year will be no exception. Astonishing news comes in and the interest of breeders is top-notch. Practically every variety of the best of the country produces will be on exhibition. Repeatedly it is said by visitors that "This alone is a magnificent show."

Ladies' Department

Art.—Many a really fine piece of art in oils, water colors, drawing, china, and copperware, finds a place in this splendid collection. Especial pains will be taken to make this department very attractive.

Jellies, Preserves.—Everything known to the culinary art will be shown in great profusion both domestic and manufactured. The East-sum company and the Seminole County preserved products will surpass all previous records.

Needlework.—The reports from canvassers assure the grandest collection of domestic art work ever seen and the ladies will hover around these exhibits like honey bees around a bed of flowers.

Curios.—Among the curios to be shown will be many Indian relics and specimens of the Florida mineral kingdom. A rare exhibit of Florida pottery from the lower part of the state.

Other Exhibits

Fish.—It is expected that a fine display of fish will be sent from Apopka Lake. The greatest inland fishery in this section.

Country Exhibits.—Seminole and Volusia will have the most complete and down-to-date shows ever sent to this fair. The public can be prepared for an astonishing exhibition in every department. Too much cannot be said about the activity of these two great county exhibits.

Orange county does not compete with the others as a county, but will be represented by community exhibits—town displays—and general individual collections.

Winter Park, Winter Garden, Oakland, Apopka, Aconee, Windermere, Gotha Fair Villa and Conway will each have wonderful displays.

Citrus Exchange will endeavor to surpass all previous citrus exhibits in the center of the rotunda.

Flower Show.—Everything appears favorable for a beautiful flower show. In addition to the display to be made by Mrs. John Caruthers, our people are invited to all to the attractiveness of the fair by donating flowers, plants and palms.

Schools.—The schools of the several counties will be well represented in the education building and elsewhere.

Automobiles.—The automobile show will be very complete, all the space is taken long ago and you can look for a fine representation.

Tractors and Machinery.—These practical features will be in evidence on our grounds and well worth the attention of our farmers.

Electrical Display.—Several electrical concerns, have rented space for tents and this particular line will be complete.

State Educational.—Moving pictures and other exhibits concerning health, sanitation, physical welfare, etc., will be on hand.

Canning Clubs.—Perhaps the best collection of products by county canning clubs will occupy a large space.

Amusements.—More horses than ever are in training on the track for the races. Great interest centers in these races, for turfmen declare Orlando has the best track in the south.

The management of the Kilty Band has promised that a good share of music will be provided in addition to the Jones Band.

Children's Pageant.—On Children's day, Friday morning, there will be given a beautiful pageant by the children of the city well worth the notice of a big audience.

The Flying Wards.—An acrobatic company of three ladies and four men will give a series of performances in front of the grand stand superior to anything of its kind shown in Orlando.

Johnnie J. Jones' entire aggregation will occupy the old place on the grounds and it is claimed many new features have been added making a Grand Carnival of Fun.

The fair will be opened at night with a grand display of fireworks Tuesday night at 7:30 with no charge for admittance.

The largest lake in the United States is Lake Superior, with an area of 32,000 square miles.

Johnny J. Jones Shows to Big Features at Sub-Tropical Fair; Winter Home of Aggregation

Johnny J. Jones' attractions in their entirety are the big feature of the Sub-Tropical Mid-Winter Fair which opens its gates at Orlando Tuesday and continues all week. This aggregation of amusement purveyors make their winter home at Orlando and have brightened up wonderfully since they were in Daytona Christmas week. They are direct from the Tampa Fair and Gasparilla and have every show at top notch speed. New attractions beckon you and appeal to young and old alike. Every tent has an appeal all its own and every candy or basket wheel turns you on. It will be a big time for five days and Volusia county should turn out en masse for the occasion. Winter visitors should motor to Orlando either in their own cars or over the Orange Belt Auto line and enter into the spirit of the occasion.

The Johnny J. Jones' own band provides the best of music of the time, but what, for the love of Mike, would we do without the midway. Where would we tollown mortals be without the jolly, dazzling, thrilled, jazzy midway, the midway composed of the wonderful attractions of Johnny J. Jones.

Sounds of the Midway.

What is it, when over the stage, the old stager enters the show ground, that makes him hold his head a trifle higher, prick up his ears and quicken his pace. Nothing more than the burst of harmonious discordance that breaks upon his ears from the midway. When we can hear the sound of the hoarse voices of the perspiring showman roaring through his megaphone, the weird howls of the wild man, the clash of cymbals, the deep rub-a-dub-dub of the drum, the triumphant strains of the merry-go-round, the shouts of the lemmings, the earnest exhortations of the hot man, the impassioned appeal of the artist with the balloons and the whips, the seductive tones of the lady with four rings for a dime—when he hears all these things, he becomes young again, and promises himself a couple of hours on the midway.

Much to See.

A couple of hours? Try it and see. Johnny J. Jones has provided a whole lot more than two hours' amusement this year. In one does, up again, and in at another, and still another and another one after that.

There's a whole lot more to see. There's the animal show, "Superior" and "The Dodger," the "Shamrock" Twins, the 1st man and the midwife, the Wild West show, the performing monkeys, and there's the "Sh. Tw." "Stella" and a lot more and you simply must go and see the big show.

Every one of the Jones' attractions are well worth seeing and there is not a category in the bunch. All are interesting. Some are thrilling, many are educational, others are funny, and all are clean and it is noteworthy the number of people down there whom one would not expect to see patronizing midways.

Well, it is hard to start in to describe the attractions. First of all, we see our little friends the Midgets, in a very beautiful new home very pleasant as ever, with an excellent memory for faces and glad to be in the wonderful city of Orlando. There is Prince Denison, Mlle. Salome, Princess Marguerite and Princess Leonora. Then there are the Siamese twins, born in Brighton, two delightfully bright little girls, getting on well with their unusual and now in grade four. They are well worth seeing.

"Stella" that magnificent painting by the gifted Italian Napoleon Nini, is on exhibition and well worth seeing. At the lecture points out, the artist no longer reached the peak in realism in painting the human figure. That delight and artistic attraction, Kila, Louis Black's "Theodore De Bonis Art, Entomology, 'Superior' will draw big crowds. There is nothing here for the low born, but a show of artistic merit and originality.

The famous Wild Animal exhibition and one ring circus, with performing elephants, tigers and panthers, is an ever new entertainment in itself, and the six different troupes and their four-legged friends through some very clever tricks. The Harry Black Wild West exhibition is one of those performances that will attract bright and audience's interest as it is one of those old westerns that were common in the early days. The reputation of the horse show is quite different and amazing. Made Black's made them in another that is just about as full of action as anything ever seen here. There is much to see.

MRS. HARDING HAS REAL JOB AHEAD

BY LORA KELLY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—When Mrs. Harding becomes first lady March 4, she will assume no small domestic task.

Keeping the White House wheels in running order is more complicated than the ordinary housewife suspects.

An editor's wife may slip out to the corner grocery in case of unexpected company. An editor's wife may also sweep off the front porch littered up by politicians' cigar stubs, and nobody will worry.

But a president's wife—that's different!

When menus are to be planned for a dinner, Mrs. Harding will call in the experts.

The marketing is supervised by the chief housekeeping manager, though the preferences of the first lady are considered.

This routine goes on from year to year, regardless of administrative changes. There are always plenty of "holdovers" in the Backstairs Cabinet.

Just now there is speculation as to whether Inez McWhorter, the colored cook of the Hardings, who aspires to the title of "Waffle Queen" of the White House, will realize her ambition.

The kitchens are spacious enough to accommodate a half-dozen frying pan artists. So if President-elect Harding wishes to retain his waffle architect, there will doubtless be room for her.

Washington is still wondering what was chatted about at the informal tea party at the White House recently when Mrs. Wilson entertained Mrs. Harding. Not another soul got within gunshot but the best guess is that they talked about keeping house.

Ever since the time of lovely Dolly Madison, who strung the presidential "wash" across the east room, the chief interest in White House affairs has centered in its china.

Even White House dishes break. Uncle Sam gets downright human at times and pays the breakage bills without a murmur.

The bills are paid through the Army Finance department under the head of Public Buildings and Grounds.

Wear and tear on the crockery has been no small item in the household expenses, if one may judge from the frequency with which new sets have been bought.

It has only been within recent years that any effort has been made to preserve a collection representative of each presidential family.

When Mrs. McKinley called in Mrs. Abby Gunn Baker, an authority of antique china, to assemble what valuable pieces were left in the cupboards, there was not a complete set of any administration.

Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes' dishes are most striking in the collection. She ordered that each piece be decorated with some flower, bird or animal of the United States. Her "turkey platter" is one of the best known to china collectors.

About four years ago the first really American-made dishes were installed in the White House cupboards.

Possibly Mrs. Wilson told Mrs. Harding to do her own dishes if she'd keep the 1700 pieces intact.

RHODES SCHOLARS TAKE HIGH RANK

(United Press.)

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 11.—The facts concerning American Rhodes scholars, their preparation, records and careers are contained in an article prepared by Professor R. W. Burgess of Brown University, in the American Oxonian, published today.

More than 500 Rhodes scholars have been appointed from the beginning down to the present, of whom 360 are now living in the United States, 130 are at Oxford, and 19 are living in other countries. The Rhodes scholars represent 172 American colleges and universities; 39 institutions have sent as many as five or more, while 7 have been represented by ten or more Rhodes scholars. Of this last group Harvard and Princeton lead with 18 each, Yale has 13, Brown 11, the Universities of Idaho and Virginia ten each.

The average age of the Rhodes scholars at the time they enter Oxford is 22 years and four months. Most of them have taken at least the A. B. degree in an American university; only 14 per cent have had less than a full college course, while 10 per cent have had one or more years or graduate of professional study. Forty per cent have represented their colleges in one or more branches of college athletics.

A comparison of the record of the men who take the honor schools with the entire body of English honors taking the same examinations shows that the Americans take more firsts than the English honor men, and in firsts and seconds together their lead is still greater.

YEAST VERSUS PICKLES

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Soda fountain men have yeast on the mind, instead of pickles. Stenographers frequently make a lunch of an ice cream soda and a cake of yeast, say soda clerks in the belief that yeast will benefit their complexion.

POOR MAN CAN NOW BECOME ENGLAND'S HEAD

(United Press.)

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Britain's prime ministers have at last an official place of residence. Premier Lloyd George being the first occupant of the beautiful estate, known as the Chequers, in Buckinghamshire, which was presented to the nation by Lord Lee of Fareham, "as a thanksgiving for her deliverance in the great war," and as "A place of rest and recreation for her prime ministers forever."

It is generally assumed that No. 10 Downing street, London, is the official residence of the premier, but this is not so, as the office of the prime minister is not recognized by the constitution. "No. 10" is the official residence of the first lord of the treasury just as No. 11 Downing street is the residence of the chancellor of the Exchequer. Usually the premier takes the office of first lord of the treasury, but he cannot occupy 10 Downing street unless he does—or except by the grace of the proper occupant.

The chequers, which is within half a mile of London, however, is specifically designated for the prime minister, whatever office he may hold. Premiers like late Marquis of Salisbury, the Earl of Rosebery, the late Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, and Arthur Balfour had huge estates, but Premier Lloyd George is a comparatively poor man, as was ex-Premier Asquith.

Lord Lee was convinced that at no very distant date England may get a labor premier, who in ordinary circumstances will certainly not be able to keep up proper state. On January 8 Lord Lee invited the premier and a select party down to the chequers and after dinner, he and Lady Lee quietly drove away, saying, "It is yours from now onwards."

Ample funds have been invested to ensure the proper upkeep of this fine estate.

HIENS RESUME WORK INCREASE PRODUCTION

(International News Service.)

FINDLAY, Ohio, Feb. 11.—Due to the warm weather Hancock county hens have gone on a laying spree. As a result the retail price here fell to 60 cents a dozen for eggs with prospects of going much lower. Dealers reported a greater volume of eggs than ever before are being brought into Findlay.

Had there been no war of epidemics, it is estimated the present population of the world would be 1,519,000,000 people.

E. Olds Stands for Revolution of World for Good of Business

BY R. E. OLDS
Cabrera and Lansing, Michigan.

A manufacturer employing thousands of men, I believe the only way to revolutionize the world for good is in the hands of the heads of industry and employers in these United States. The reason why America has become so wonderfully successful is because we have had men who wanted to do great things. The American men are a hard working class. To reach success their minds are not for eight hours per week in most cases night and day. They become more tired and weary with business problems than I ever while working at the bench.

When I could see enough day-light ahead to support a wife, it was my good fortune to marry a devoted, Christian-principled girl, and we started out together on life's pathway. She had always attended church, but I hardly knew what the inside of a church looked like. While working at the bench I agreed with all my fellow workers and pals that the church-going people were a lot of hypocrites and only wanted to get me in for what they could get out of me, but to please my wife—which every married man should try to do—I went with her to church.

I went to church four or five years before I could really believe that there were so many good people inside of the churches. Gradually I became convinced that their guiding thoughts and teachings were of good—to help those that were worthy of help and good fellowship. I tried to make myself believe that this could not be true, but finally just had to see the real meaning of the work of the church and the teaching of Christ. Then it dawned on me that I was doing wrong to stay on the outside and that my place was on the inside to take my part and lend a helping hand. I finally wanted to belong to such a wonderful organization for good and right teachings and counted it a great privilege.

We have heard a great deal about the troubles between Capital and Labor. If both or all were Christian-principled men, do you suppose you would hear anything? Take, for example, one of the companies of which I am president, the Rio Motor Car company. This company is employing over five thousand men, and I believe we have the largest percentage of church-going and Christian men of any corporation in the country. During this company's life such a thing as labor trouble has been unknown, and if a labor agitator comes around the plant to poison the minds of the men and make them dissatisfied with their employers the men won't listen to him.

In my acquaintance with the business world, having started out making steam engines and then invented and pioneered the gasoline and automobile, I have been brought in contact with thousands of manufacturers and business men from Maine to California. I find that about ninety per cent of them are Christian men. Now, suppose all of our employers in the States would put up a policy to their employees to the effect that their companies would favor church-going or they will derive. Then the world will have a wonderful starter for good? Don't you think the light of the high example of the United States would shine all over the world? I know it would.

Understand me, I am not in favor of forcing religion on anyone—just want to get them to see and know the Truth for themselves; that the people inside the church are the kind they would enjoy, and that the teachings of Christ are worth their while; that they would be greatly benefited by coming in contact with people who regularly attend a church, whether they are members or not. Whether any man, woman or child should become a church member or a Christian is entirely for them to decide, but I do believe we should use our influence to get them to know the truth and to see what the church is doing for the world and the people of this land of ours—that they are the right kind of people to know. To meet them as brothers and sisters on an equal plane would give them a different look at life and would help them to be happy and contented and learn how to apply the Golden Rule—to do to each other as they would have us do to them.

The church society has not always been perfect, but generally nine-tenths good is a very fair average. The church cannot show the people the way if they won't listen to what it has to say. It is for the employer to get them to listen; then they will soon discover as I did the great benefits

If you will read the Literary Digest for December 11th you will be convinced it is true for both the employer and employee to pull together. Our jails and penitentiaries are full and crime is increasing. I have hoped the church would be able to reach out to correct the evil, but it cannot do so alone—we all must help.

The only hope I see to save the world from its present chaos lies in getting the people to see or realize what the true Christian principle will do for them. Our schools and colleges are teaching too much of the idea that the world owes them a living, instead of the world owes them nothing without honest days' work and endeavor on their part. Not until they understand that they are entitled to promotion or success; it is the only permanent foundation to success and a life worth while.

Mr. Employer, let us all arrive at a common basis where we can for our mutual shine and use all the influence we have for the good of all. Let us benefit our employees by showing them the way.
All there is in life for me now is the good I can do the world. I could have retired perfectly independent years ago, but the joy I get in business is to furnish a livelihood for men that want to help themselves honestly. The army of men coming from our factories, knowing I am helping them to earn an honest living and get ahead in the world, is more to me than all the dividends I receive. I want to help the honest man, and those that are ready to do the right thing. I want to help the upright man to succeed that he may properly care for his family and loved ones. The wonderful joy I have in doing Christian deeds is my happiness.

I believe in three great things in life—Love, Labor and Religion.
Love—That divine gift that annihilates time and distance and disposes of it, that gives to us the way to forget self while doing for others. It is in us before we come into the world, is all that we can take out, and the best we can leave behind us.

Labor—The honest endeavor of heart, hand and brain, through which we give expression to a desire to accomplish something worth while in the world.

Religion—Faith in the ever-presence of God, the source of all our joy, our hope and comfort that gives us courage in life; destroys the fear of death, and has prepared a greater reward than anything we could conceive of here on earth.

HOTEL CLARENDON

On Saturday evening at the Hotel Clarendon occurred the regular weekly ball, and it was enjoyed by many of the townspeople who always find these dances to be of the most enjoyable nature. The young people enjoy the promenade on the spacious verandas overlooking the sea almost equally as well as the dancing in the beautiful ballroom. The Clarendon and the social life which it gives, not only to its guests but as well to the residents of the place, is one of the greatest assets of the Triple Cities.

Many people who enjoyed the dance were dinner guests and the dining room was filled to its capacity, and during the entire evening the big lobby presented a brilliant scene, as there are always many beautiful women, handsomely gowned, who are spectators only.

Music by the hotel orchestra was very fine and the ballroom opening from the lobby was filled with dancers.

On Monday evening the guests of the Hotel Clarendon and their friends will enjoy a special dancing party in honor of St. Valentine's day. The loveliness of the ballroom will be enhanced by a profusion of red berries, valentines and plants appropriate to the occasion. The music, as is usual, will be furnished by the hotel orchestra. The management is planning to have this one of the most delightfully informal events of the winter and those who are devotees of the art of dancing are anticipating an evening of much pleasure.

A number of the Hotel Clarendon guests enjoyed the trapshooting in Seabreeze Saturday afternoon. Among the most expert shooters is Frank Seibert, a Clarendon guest, who on Wednesday broke 98 out of 100 birds. This record would place him in the professional class, as it is seldom ever excelled by anyone.

Other guests of the Hotel Clarendon who played on Saturday were John Purdy, J. B. Rock, Ray Barker and Horace Bonser. Mr. Bonser has international fame as a trapshooter. George Allen, of Marshall Park, and Leroy King, of Seabreeze, also enjoyed the sport on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briggs, who have been season guests at the Hotel Clarendon, spent last week in Miami and have again returned to the Clarendon where they will remain for the balance of the winter. They encountered some very warm weather in Miami and were glad to return to the exhilarating climate of Seabreeze. Mr. Briggs is connected with the Briggs Motor company of Detroit.

Mrs. B. Alth, who is spending the winter at Orlando, motored to Seabreeze Thursday with a party of friends and were guests at the Clarendon for luncheon. They found fine roads and enjoyed a very happy day. Mrs. Alth is a very charming woman and always very popular with a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Booth, of New York City; Mrs. E. E. Godney, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. P. L. Brady, of Brooklyn, who are spending the mid-winter season at Orlando, motored to Seabreeze Thursday and were guests at the Clarendon for luncheon. They enjoyed a spin on the beach and the many beauties of the hotel and the Triple Cities.

Mrs. W. S. Morrison, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. W. L. Carpenter, of De Land, motored to the Clarendon Friday for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Smith, of Boston, arrived the latter part of the week in Seabreeze and will remain for the remainder of the season as guests of the Clarendon. They have been coming to that popular hotel for the past ten years and although they have visited all the Florida resorts, they find that none of them exceed the Triple Cities for climate and pleasant surroundings. Mr. Smith is at the head of one of the oldest and best known jewelry stores in New England and is a man who has met with business success.

A pleasant luncheon party at the Hotel Clarendon on Friday consisted of Mrs. G. A. Schrader, Mrs. M. Griffith, Mrs. M. Sheldon and Mrs. Samuel K. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Henry, of Birmingham, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Train, of White River Junction, Vt.; and Mrs. E. Rouse, of Jacksonville, were recent visitors at the Hotel Clarendon.

Mrs. G. F. Bradley and her sister are guests at the Hotel Clarendon. They are from New York and arrived on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Webster and Mrs. A. B. Hardenburg, of Honesdale, Pa., arrived at the Hotel Clarendon on Friday and will remain for the balance of the winter.

Among the new arrivals at the Hotel Clarendon, the following have been noted. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Walker, of Weymouth, Mass.; Capt. V. D. Dixon, Lt. F. I. Patrick, and Lt. R. C. Mac Donald, of Carlstrom Field; Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Smith, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, of Mobile, Ala.; Jay Clancy, M. Shewell, of New York City; Dr. and Mrs. W. E. HOTEL ORMOND

Daisy Jean, the Belgian cellist, who has been described as the foremost woman cellist, will give a concert at the Hotel Ormond next Wednesday evening, February 17, which will be one of a series of ten she is giving for the relief of suffering Belgian children. "Revealed qualities which give her high rank as an interpretative artist," says the Musical Review of Miss Jean following her recital in Aeolian hall, New York.

Subsequently she appeared at a recital in Washington in honor of Vice President and Mrs. Thomas Marshall and then gave a second recital at the Belgian embassy. With her on the program at Ormond Beach will be Marinus de Jong, the Belgian pianist virtuoso, and her accompanist is Miss Gabrielle Radoux of the Royal Conservatory of Antwerp.

Miss Jean is an adopted daughter of Belgium. She was born in Havre, France, is of French and Scotch parentage, and was raised in Belgium. Her family was driven from Antwerp during the bombardment in the world war and fled to England. When she returned to Antwerp in 1919 she was decorated by the queen.

The Hotel Ormond baseball team on Friday won its fourth consecutive victory this season. The hotel players defeated Ormond's nine, 9 to 3. Fine support helped Coulter, the hotel pitcher, over some rough spots.

Miss Daisy Jean, the Belgian cellist, who gives a recital next week, arrived at the Hotel Ormond on Friday.

MADE LIVING SLIPPING ON BANANA PEELS

(International News Service.)
CAMDEN, N. J., Feb. 10.—Frank Smith of Philadelphia is listed by the police here as a "professional banana peel slipper." He made a living, it is alleged, by doing plain and fancy falls, after skidding on banana peels dropped in his path by a confederate. They would always occur on railroad or street cars, and after the fall Smith would present a claim for damages to the company and receive a fat check in settlement. But he skidded once too often, for when he entered the office of the Public Service Railway company here asking for damages for a fall in one of their street cars he was placed under arrest. The police say he admitted the newest of "skin games" and the court sentenced him to six months in jail.

Walter F. Candler, of Atlanta, arrived on Friday to join his family who have been season guests at the Clarendon. Mr. Candler's name has become nationally famous as the main factor of Coca Cola.

PRINCE GEORGE

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Brown, of St. Louis and E. C. Roth of New York City, who have been enjoying a motor trip through the state, were in Daytona during the week, and while in the city were guests at the Prince George. They had found the roads good and the trip was proving a very pleasant experience.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Borland and Mr. and Mrs. S. Buchanan of Pittsburgh, Pa., were in Daytona recently and were guests at the Prince George. They were motoring through the South and found the Triple Cities one of the finest places they had seen. They very much enjoyed motoring on the beach and left with pleasant memories of Florida's three famous resort places.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Briggs are at the Prince George, where they will remain for several days. Their home is in Philadelphia and they say that the winter there has been so mild and lovely as to make many people desire to remain there until the disagreeable spring weather is at hand. March is one of the most disagreeable and changeable months in the North and one of the very best in Florida.

James Tipton of Churchill, was at the Prince George during his stay in Daytona last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hammond of Muskegon, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hawley of Detroit and Mrs. M. Hammond of Muskegon are at the Prince George, where they will spend several days enjoying the many pleasures of the Triple Cities.

W. W. Wilson of Cleveland, O., in Daytona to spend a few days and is a guest at the Prince George. He came by motor.

Mrs. Edna L. Denton and Miss Katherine Hawks of Corning, N. Y., are at the Prince George for a few days. The name of Hawks is a very conspicuous and prominent one in Corning, for it is there that this world famous Hawks cut glass is made. From this brilliant and beautiful product Corning has received the name of the "Crystal City."

J. E. McGee and Chris Forster of the Auto Green Book company were at the Prince George for a few days last week. They are spending the winter at the various Florida resorts looking after the business interests of their company, and when in Daytona are always registered at the Prince George.

MODERN "RAIN MAKERS" WILL USE LIQUID AIR

(International News Service.)
LONDON, Feb. 11.—Bringing down rain by the firing of cannon, the old theory said to have been disproved during the war, is to be improved upon.

Two ex-officers of the Royal Air Force have started a company at Port Arthur for the purpose of rain making by airplanes.

Their scheme is to create showers by spraying liquid air from an airplane thus causing the moisture in the atmosphere to condense and fall to earth.

They claim that their project will successfully supply rain for arid and rural districts where nature has failed.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS!

If You Are an Executive

Someone must buy what your company offers or no executives will be needed.

If You Are a Clerk

Someone must buy what your firm sells or soon you will not be needed.

If You Are an Industrial Worker

Someone must buy the things you help produce or you will be out of a job.

Remember, your money will buy more now than it has bought for months. Stock up now before prices go up again. Don't delay. Go shopping tomorrow!

You buy from the merchant---the merchant buys from the jobber---the jobber buys from the manufacturer---and the manufacturer starts has plant at full blast and hires more men. And then it gets around to you again---everybody working and earning and buying and selling and paying. That's prosperity.

Leaders in the civic and commercial growth of the Triple Cities earnestly advise you to (Newspaper Enterprise Association.) DETROIT, Feb. 12.—The freakish artist is no more!

So says Clyde H. Burroughs, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, who recently visited Greenwich Village, N. Y., a haven for artists.

"The modern artist is a very human person," says Burroughs. "He would be taken for a prosperous business man. The old-time dabbler, with long hair, flowing tie and soft hat pulled down over his left eye, has passed out."
